

After her valiant fight against cancer, she died peacefully on the evening of Sunday, 17th November with her family around her.

was achieved by a 100% -win record a brand with two championship-winning

The Juniors finished 5th place overall certainly came first this year!

implemented significant modifications between Wendron-Gordon and comeback in the final minutes. The down a treat! Well done to all players something for everyone. This student-own green wall, which they fitted and how this helps to regulate both fooding show-stopping performances and a 1st place - Webber with a design of 2nd place - School with Darth Vader 3rd place - Lupton with their half the School garden. Meanwhile, the eco-committee pressed the harvested apples to hands-on activities, learned about

The first day was spent in Derry/

Just before half-term, fourteen IB2 brand-new Peacemakers Museum and were able to view a full-size replica of The trip was an eye-opening process and the difficulties of achieving reconciliation in a post-conflict society.

Orchestral Day for seventy-five pupils congratulations to everyone involved -

Whatever the ability - it was a superb three in the first half of term already.

Evie Littlefield, James Doyle, Reuben

Years 6 and 7 swam against Newcastle Under-Lyme at home. It was a close 50m Butterfly - 32.97 secs, and Rory Townsend 50m Butterfly - 36.80 secs.

Oakley 5k

Oakley did their annual 5km run, raising money for House charity Medecins ahead of the Oakley House Charity 5k the question: "In the last five years act as the Research Officer for his this month. Dexter wrote a superbly-recently completed his 850-mile cycle Nice. Which included over 45,000 feet

Over half term, Drama Scholars Isla Chattin and Dylan Foster-Agg performed

